

Nyantiok Manas W. Bul

Registered Nurse (RN)

About Me

Compassionate and dedicated Registered Nurse with six and a half years post-graduation experience in general and orthopedic med/Surg, and spinal cord injuries and disease. I am currently working with spinal injuries and disease patients at the VA Medical Center here in Syracuse. I am interested in joining your floor. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Contact

 315 870 4286

 nyantiok.manas@yahoo.com

 203 Berkshire Ave., Syracuse
NY 13208

Skills

- Wound dressing and care, including ostomies, fistula, and tracheostomy.
- Supervise and monitor patients on respiratory equipment, Ventilators, BiPAP/CPAP, non-rebreather, or high-flow oxygen.
- Inserted/removed catheters and irrigations.
- MONITOR AND TRACK MEDICAL TUBE/DRAINAGE SYSTEMS: NEPHROSTOMY TUBE, CHEST TUBE, WOUND VOC, JP DRAIN,

LANGUAGES

English

DINKA

Kiswahili

Education

(2023 – present)

CHAMBERLIAN UNIVERSITY, COLLEGE OF PUBLIC HEALTH
master of Public Health

(2022 – 2023)

CHAMBERLIAN UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF SCIENCE IN NURSING
Bachelor of Nursing

(2015 – 2018)

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE OF NURSING
Associate in Applied Science Registered Nursing (RN)

(2009 – 2010)

TBRILLIANT INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES
DIPLOMA IN COMPUTING AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Certifications

- REGISTERED NURSE IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK
- BLS AND AED AT VA MEDICAL CENTER
- ACLS CERTIFIED AT VA MEDICAL CENTER

Honoree and Awards

- DR. ROBERT CORSKY SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS
- PHI THETA KAPPA HONOR SOCIETY
- MEMBER OF THE HONORS PROGRAM AT SUNY ONONDAGA COMMUNITY COLLEGE
- TWO CERTIFICATES OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

WORK EXPERIENCE

spinal cord injuries and disease SCI/D

St. Joseph's Hospital

2023 – Present

- Ventilator care and management.
 - Wound vac placement, ostomy care, and management, suprapubic placement, and management.
 - Complex wound dressing and care.
 - Lower Limb Amputees gait training and rehabilitation.
 - injectable and oral chemotherapy administration and cancer patient care and management.
-

RN Orthopedic Med/Surg 6C

VA at Syracuse, NY.

2020 – 2023.

- Team/Charge Nurse, assigning patients to nurses on the floor, making assignments ready for the next shift.
 - Doing unit audits and checking emergency charts for rapid/code blue checks.
 - The go-to person for IV and blood draws on complex patients.
 - Well-trained in peritoneal dialysis, PICC, and port line management.
 - Priorities patient and staff safety by using different types of ambulation equipment.
 - Mentor and percept new staff.
-

RN Med/Surg

St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center, Syracuse, NY.

2018– 2020

- Monitor and communicate patients' health status/changes with interdisciplinary teams.
- Educate patients and families about patient care in the hospital and at home for a safe discharge and to minimize readmission risk.
- Functioned in a leadership role as team leader/charge nurse; assigned patients and monitored care delivered by RN, LPN, and Student Nurse Aide.
- Participated in St. Joseph's Health pain and pain treatment committee.

Teacher Assistant

St. Vincent de Paul daycare, Syracuse, NY.

2013 – 2014

- supervision of children from three months to eight years old.
 - Monitoring children in the schoolyard and assisting with homework.
-

Student nurse aide

St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center, Syracuse, NY.

2017 – 2018.

- Bedside care, meal setup, and assisting patients with ambulation.
- Takes Vital signs and reports abnormal critical to RN.

References

- Mary H. Ryan, St. Joseph's College of Nursing (315) 448 5671, maryh.ryan@sjhsyr.org.
 - Christiana Okereke. (315) 558 9227 Christiana.Okereke@va.gov
 - Verna Steward (315) 420 7993 Verne.Steward@va.gov
 - Ruth Omonduki. VA medical center (315) 391 7539, Ruth.Omonduki@va.gov
-